

President's Commentary

Johna Easley

Interim President & CEO

“To serve our communities’ pre-hospital needs through value-driven, compassionate, and clinically superior care.”

Organizational Highlights

- Recruitment Efforts

- EMT School – collaboration with Dr. Knoles and OSU FST
 - Next class starts August 22
 - OKC – 57 applicants, 33 in observation ride/Interview phase, cap of 20
 - Tulsa – 30 applicants, 24 in observation ride/Interview phase, cap of 20
- OKC academy 12 EMTs and 1 Paramedic (graduates July 30th)
- Tulsa academy 14 EMTs and 3 Paramedics (graduated July 22nd)

- Retention Efforts

- Wage increases
- Shift schedule variations (testing some new options next shift bid)

“To serve our communities’ pre-hospital needs through value-driven, compassionate, and clinically superior care.”

Organizational Highlights

- Partnerships
 - Utilizing OCFD EMTs on our units
- Organization Structure
 - Please Welcome Sonia Coleman, Revenue Cycle Management Director
 - New Posting, Director of Operations, Western Division

“To serve our communities’ pre-hospital needs through value-driven, compassionate, and clinically superior care.”